

Eastwest Education Group

Timetable Sample:

Day	City	Morning	Afternoon	Accommodation
1	London & Cambridge	Arrive in London, travel to Cambridge		Residential
2	Cambridge	Welcome to Cambridge and programme induction. Classes will be delivered at our College campus	Visit Cambridge: Tour of the University & Colleges. Visit St. Mary's Church and enjoy views of Cambridge city centre and the colleges from the top of the tower.	Residential
3	Cambridge	Leadership course 1: Do you have team awareness? The session will explore: features of effective team communication; team roles; team leadership; and your own style of leadership Students will take a	Leadership course 2: English etiquette for business. Demonstrating poor etiquette in business meetings can have negative results. This course explores the essentials of business etiquette. Modules include: meeting	Residential leadership test to determine their leadership style.	etiquette, understanding unwritten rules, hidden hierarchies, and meeting interaction.

Eastwest Education Group

4	Cambridge	Leadership course 3: Communication styles. Through discussion, role-play activities, trainer feedback and guidance you will explore "your understanding of communication." You will also identify ways that you can improve the effectiveness of your approach and methods of communication.	Leadership course 4: Communication skills & voice coaching This course will explore and explain different communication styles and the impact they can have on people. There will also be a session on voice coaching that introduces people to the power of their words and the impact of elocution. The session begins with exercises to ensure the voice is relaxed and properly warmed up, and this is followed by vocal drills. Students to agree presentation topic. Students to present in session 9.	Residential
5	Cambridge	Leadership course 5: Team work activity. Students will be split up into small groups and given a task to complete in their allocated team. Team members will be expected to reflect on their experience and	Leadership course 6: English etiquette & afternoon tea. Afternoon tea is a light meal typically eaten between 4 and 6 pm. Afternoon tea as we understand it now is said to have been established by	Residential

Eastwest Education Group

		identify areas for development and improvement.	the Duchess of Bedford in the 1840s. You will be guided through the history, etiquette and customs of afternoon tea to enable you to fully enjoy this oh so English of tea custom.
6	London	Visit London: Day trip to London to see Buckingham Palace, Thames, Tower Bridge, London Eye and the British Museum. There will also be an opportunity to visit London's retail centre in Oxford Street and Regent Street.		Residential
7	Cambridge	Leadership course 7: Leadership skills. Short lecture on the key features of outstanding leadership. Students will then be split up into small groups to complete their allocated task. Students will be required to watch a short film and analyse the nature of the	Cambridge visit: Visit the Botanic Garden	Residential leadership depicted in the selected film.

Eastwest Education Group

8	London	Visit Houses of Parliament. Your guide will explain the role and function, composition, and evolution of the Houses of Parliament. There will also be a discussion about the ongoing tension between the Executive (Government) and the legislature (Parliament). You will also have a guided tour of the Houses of Parliament.		Residential
9	Cambridge	Leadership course 8: English etiquette & personal style. Creating a polished image will communicate confidence, presence and gravitas. Your trainer will work with you to improve your personal posture (standing posture, walking posture, sitting posture). and given a task to complete in their allocated team.	Leadership course 9: Presentations. Students to present their selected topic to the group. The teacher and students will provide feedback and suggestions for improvement.	Residential
10	Oxford	Factory visit: Visit BMW's Mini Cooper factory and production lines. The Mini is a design icon and Britain's biggest selling car. The visit will incorporate a tour and talks from staff from the marketing department at Mini Cooper.		Residential

Eastwest Education Group

11	Cambridge	Leadership course 10: English etiquette & dining. Your experienced trainer will explain & demonstrate English dining etiquette. You will also explore elements of British & European food culture. This programme will aid your understanding of English social protocols.	Cambridge visit to the Cambridge science park. The Cambridge Science park is recognized as one of the most important technology centres in the world, which has the incomparable R&D and record of innovation. The region's GDP accounts for 15.8% of the proportion of the whole England.	Residential
12	Oxford	Day trip to Oxford: Visit the world famous university city of Oxford. The tour will include a visit to Christ Church College, a world famous college where the filming of Harry Potter took place.		Residential
13	Flight home
14	Students arrive in their home country

Camp information

- Length: 14 days
- Dates of travel: January-December (all year round)
- Age: 16+
- Price: Please contact us

What is included in the fee?

A typical two-week standard package includes:

- Teaching materials
- 20 lessons per week
- Excursions in the UK
- End of course certificate

Fees exclude

- International flight tickets, passport fees, visa fees, airport transportation, bus passes, or travel cards, phone calls, tips and other personal expenses, etc.
- Full-board Residential accommodation.